OUT ON THE LIMB

with George Vierhus

VACATIONS are great. We are all for 'em. But, as we have often said, anticipation for the time off is often much better than realization.

But planning for vacations is still fun, if one overlooks the last minute rushing that seems to be necessary in our household before we ever get rolling.

The main fault we have found with vacations over the years is that they end too soon.

But that is not what we wanted to mention this week.

Other people, we have learned, have more complications than we do when it comes to vacation time.

Some families, for example, can't even plan on vacations until after the summer ball season is over.

-o-

THE BILL McLAIN family is a case in point.

Bill has been active in Campbell Little League circles for a long time. He is currently serving as president of the league and was director for the district playoffs that were held on the Rosemary field.

And the entire family has participated in Little League activities almost from the start of the program in town. Mrs. Bill (Pat) and their daughter have worked concession booths while Ken and Dave have played ball. And Bill has gone through "all the chairs" from coach to president.

But planning a vacation for the McLain family has been a little difficult. This year particularly.

Ken was picked for the Pony League all-star team that is doing a big job in the playoffs. The team swept the San Jose area championships and went on to the district tournament.

Dave was a member of the Little League all-stars and he, too, was in the playoffs.

You can see then how this sort of thing would complicate any definite plans for a family vacation.

What if the all-star teams on which the two McLain youths were playing moved through all the playoffs into their respective world series?

How would the family then divide up?

Then again how can they plan to take off on a vacation until both all-star teams have been eliminated?

And summer could be almost over by that time.

But, you know something, we have a sneaking idea that the McLains don't mind a bit.

Father, mother, daughter and sons are enjoying every minute of it.

It's pretty hard to top that in any league.

BUT WE ARE VACATION-CONSCIOUS not only because it is midsummer and tradition-

Campbell teen-ager makes cross-country solo flight --- on bike

Traveling across country 1600 miles in 16 days is not much of a hop in this jet age.

But it was quite a jaunt just the same for Paul Eades, a 1964 graduate of Campbell High and son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Eades, of 1032 Audrey, Campbell.

Paul is making a cross-country trip to Indianapolis. By bicycle yet.

The latest word his parents have received from the bicyclist was that he was pedalling through the corn fields of Kansas, approximately two-thirds of the distance he plans to travel. He has been on his way for 16 days.

Paul rode off from home at 6:30 a.m. on July 15 on his 10-speed Peggeot bicycle. Since his departure he has kept his family well-informed on how he is faring by frequent communiques.

Before embarking on his solo flight, he built an aluminum carrying case for his bike rack in which he packed his clothing, sleeping bag, first aid kit and other equipment.

He purchases his food along the way for camp-out meals but he tries to have one hot meal in a restaurant each day.

Paul has reported to his family that he had received "lifts" in certain areas. But they were short hauls and otherwise he has pedalled on his own, alone.

He was prohibited by the California Highway Patrol from taking the Donner Summit grade and by the Nevada Highway Patrol from going over the Silver Zone Pass in the extreme heat of the afternoon.

He reported that a kind motorist and a trucker gave him "lifts" over these points.

Because of the extreme heat also, Paul "played it cool" and took the bus across the Great Salt Desert.

His bike has given him no mechanical trouble and reports that he has had only two flats to date.

A startling coincidence took place in Colorado when the Campbell teen-ager was stopped and questioned by the Colorado State Patrol.

The Colorado police were searching for a runaway from Boulder who had been described as 16-years of age, 6 feet, 150 pounds, blue-eyed with a chipped front tooth. The boy was also supposed to be wearing dark-rimmed glasses. And to top it off, the boy was riding a blue bicycle. The description fits Paul pretty well.

In spite of the delays and the minor restrictions, the youthful bicyclist has made good time and is expected to arrive in Indianapolis as per his schedule.

He is not pedalling home, his parents have been informed. The bike will be shipped and Paul will take other means of transportation.

But his parents and Paul feel that the experience has been worthwhile in many ways.

"We are grateful for the vigilance and concern for the public safety which the men of the various state patrols have provided as Paul has made his way across the country," Mrs. Eades adds.

Elementary school board adopts budget Thursday

Campbell Union (elementary) School District trustees are expected this Thursday to adopt the 1964-65 budget for the school district. The budget, which exceeds $6 million is the largest in the district's history.

But despite the size of the budget, school district officials anticipate reduction in the tax rate because of the increase in assessed valuation in the district.

The budget also looms higher than previous years, school officials explain, because the cafeteria payroll and total loan payments to the state are included for the first time. In previous years the cafeteria category was separated and only the state loan payments due in one year were listed in the budget.

At the board meeting Thursday, Superintendent William C. Henley will report on the portable classroom situation in the district.

During the summer 12 portables have been shifted in the district at a total cost of approximately $9000. Four of the district schools now have portable classrooms. Cherry Lane (Campbell Elementary) has three; Rolling Hills has two; Rosemary has one and Hazelwood now has six.

Property owners on Jeffers and Sobrato, streets adjacent to the Hazelwood School, have objected in writing to the board the location of the six portable classrooms at that school which have been placed near the rear fence.

The board will also receive a report on the completion of the first phase of the construction project at Cherry Lane.

Terms expire

Terms of J. B. Healey and Frank Klein on the Planning Commission expired on August 1, it was reported this week.

Indications are that Mayor Charles Rose, with approval of the City Council, will reappoint the two commissioners at the council meeting next Monday, August 10.

City may purchase site for new fire station

Property on Sunnyoaks, between Kenneth and Emory, is now available for the city's permanent second fire station, city officials were informed this week. The City Council on Monday may take formal action on the long-pending acquisition.

The Santa Clara Water Conservation District has reported to the city that the title has been cleared on the one-acre plus parcel fronting on Sunnyoaks which the city can purchase for $10,930.87. The property is in excess to what is needed for a percolation pond in that area.

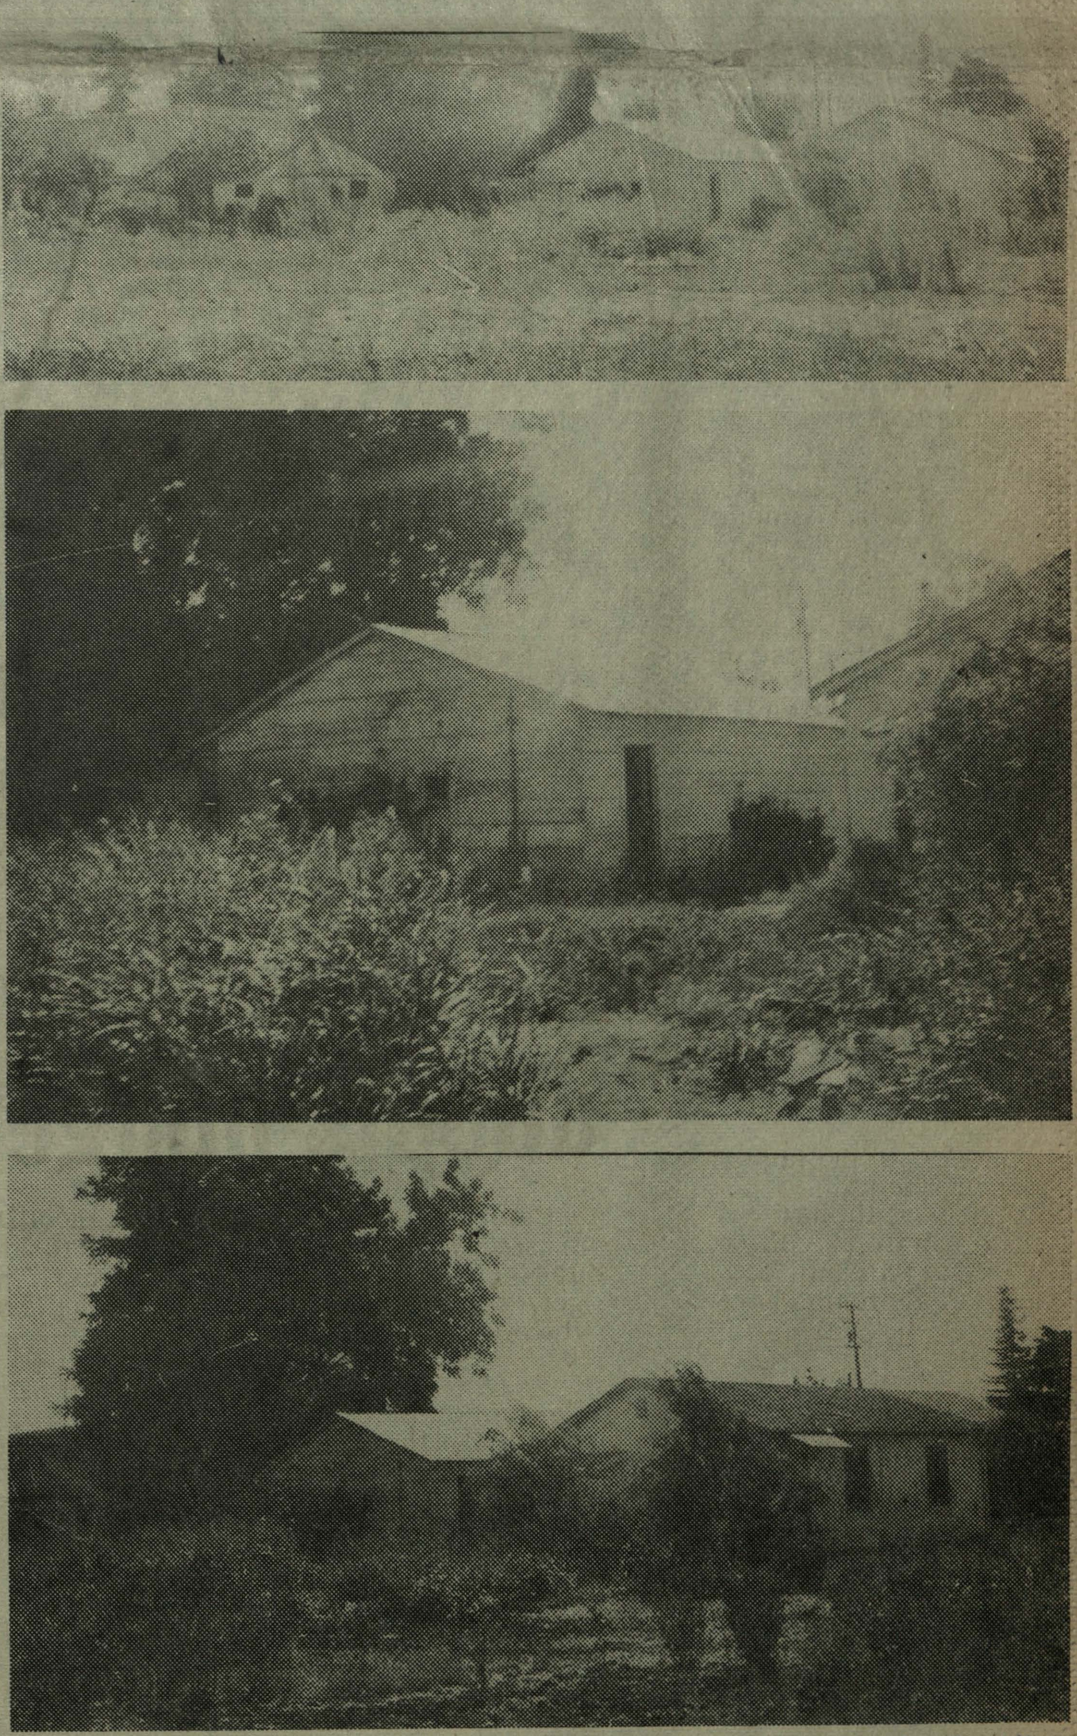
The purchase price has been budgeted this year, City Manager Bob Stephens reports, but there has been no allocation for building. But, if the City Council approves the purchase, plans for the station could be drafted and the city will plan to build in the next fiscal year.

The Campbell fire department has operated a fire station in a converted residence on Sunnyoaks just off Virginia Ave. since 1961.

The City Council next Monday night is also expected to approve an agreement with the county for the construction of Hamilton Ave., San Tomas expressway interchange.

The project will be part of the Hamilton Ave. extension now in its final planning stages. The extension will be built by the city as part of a local improvement district. In most instances the property owners affected will dedicate their land for the rights of way and the city will pick up the cost of improvements.

Under the agreement with the county, the city will underwrite the cost of the so-called "square-loop" Hamilton-expressway intersection. The city will be reimbursed at a later date when the expressway is completed.



CENTER OF ATTENTION----West Valley Junior College has applied to the Planning Commission for a use permit to allow the college to use for offices and storage the five houses (above) located on the parking lot leased from Charles Rose. The 2 1/2 acre parking area at Winchester and Latimer has been approved only for parking by the city. City building and fire department officials have indicated they oppose the use of the buildings, which they rate as substandard, by the junior college.

A senseless move

The County Committee on School District Organization is scheduled to act this Thursday, August 6, on the petition requesting a restudy of the West Valley Junior College

The petitioners claim that the restudy is needed to determine whether the junior college district should continue to exist. They also maintain that the district should be aligned with either San Jose junior college district or Foothill.

A public hearing on the petition, as required by law, was held on July 23 when the petitioners orally presented their arguments. The committee did not act on the matter then but deferred action on the request until the regular meeting this Thursday.

We have said before, and we repeat, that we fail to see what possible value any restudy of the junior college district will have. It will only be a repeat performance of a similar study that was made several years ago and before the junior college district was established.

As a matter of fact, as it was pointed out at the hearing, the recommendation that the junior college district be established stemmed from the study the committee had made.

Minutes of the committee meetings clearly showed that various alternates for junior colleges were suggested and had been checked out. The formation of the junior college district comprising the Campbell, Los Gatos and Santa Clara high school districts, was the most logical move based on the intensive and extensive research of the situation.

We maintain that the request that the West Valley district dissolve and align itself either with San Jose or Foothill is ridiculous to the extreme.

Both San Jose and Foothill have indicated in writing that they are not interested in acquiring more territory. They have their own problems in keeping up with their enrollment without taking on an extra burden.

It also has been shown that such a realignment would be an expensive undertaking as far as this district is concerned. There would be no saving to the district taxpayers. We in the district would have to pay the freight and it would be more costly than operating our own district.

Opponents of the junior college district also claim that the district is fiscally unsound and cannot operate a junior college economically.

Their arguments, in our opinion, are so much hogwash. They should call a spade a spade. They have opposed the West Valley Junior College District from the start and they are continuing to oppose it.

But their timing is atrocious. This backbiting of a going concern, and we maintain the West Valley JC is that, is detrimental to all concerned, the people who are paying the bill and the kids who are to be educated.

Their negative approach gives every indication of being nothing but a smoke screen to keep the college from developing into an outstanding educational institution which it will become despite this sniping from the sidelines.

If these opponents to the college would channel their efforts into assisting the new junior college in getting started instead of seeing how many roadblocks they can put in the way, the entire district would benefit.

The junior college district was formed by a vote of the electorate. It cannot be dissolved through a petition of a dissident minority. All any restudy would do at this time would be to delay the planned program of development for the college. And this delay would be a costly one.

We hope the County Committee on School District Organization on Thursday "tables" the petition asking for a restudy. We also hope that the committee will see fit to give the fledgling college a vote of confidence for the work already done.

And a pat on the back would be in keeping, in our opinion, for the administrators of the college for their announced plans for the future.

This pat-on-the-back might help neutralize the knife-in-the-back that this small minority of disgruntled citizens persist in using.

THROUGH STREETS

The board of directors of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce is expected this Thursday to approve a resolution requesting that both Latimer and Rincon avenues be made through streets when the San Tomas Expressway is built. Plans call for the two streets to be split by the expressway.

DECISION THURSDAY

The County Committee on School District Organization is expected this Thursday, August 6, to make a decision on the request that a restudy be made of the West Valley Junior College. A hearing on the restudy, based on a petition presented to the committee, was held on July 23.

Two policies in defense procurement are being pushed today which have had serious consequences on our local aerospace and electronic industries. And strangely enough, the two policies are in a large measure inconsistent with one another. One is a current policy to overemphasize price competition at the expense of performance capability, quality, and technical excellence. The other is a tendency to take defense business away from efficient producers in order to serve the social objective of creating employment in a depressed area and to help small business. This is often done at a price disadvantage.

In order to secure the lowest possible price in competitive bidding, it is often essential that the specifications of the item be standardized. This allows all bidders to bid on the same product, increases competition, and supposedly produces a lower price. But it also tends to freeze designs and improvement of a product. Making it cheaper becomes more important than making it better. In a new and vital industry like electronics, this emphasis upon standardization for price will deprive our armed forces of the newest and the best. It also penalizes the proven competence of our area to develop better products.

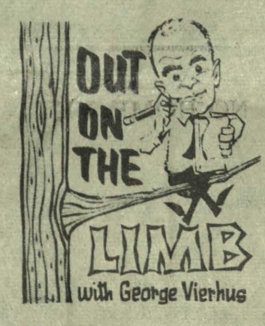
It is interesting to note that this same thing has happened to the power industry which insisted upon standardized bids and lower prices. As a result, very little of any significance has been developed in recent years in the field of transmitting electric power. Because the industry has stalemated itself, almost no American universities offer a course in power engineering. Today's power engineers must come from abroad. This should not happen in electronics -- Too much remains to be done!

Another new Pentagon policy creates a price disadvantage to the government by restricting competition and bidding to labor surplus areas and to small business.

At present a large procurement of new type solid state electronic counters, amounting to almost two million dollars, is in controversy. A local firm which actually developed this type of instrument is now allowed to bid only on 50% of the contract, while a New Jersey firm in a labor surplus area has the advantage of bidding for the full procurement of more than 800 instruments. This is unfair competition and will most certainly result in a higher price to the government. Further, it would have been useless to protest this arrangement because then the entire purchase of 800 instruments would have been set aside for small business with no restrictions whatever regarding price.

It is grossly inconsistent to quibble over price at the expense of quality and technical progress in one instance, and then ignore price in another instance. Yet, we are doing just that.

A revision of defense procurement is urgently needed. The time has come to determine once and for all whether we should get the most for our defense dollar or turn the Pentagon into a social welfare agency.



ally and wistfully one sort of thinks about such things.

Our efficient office manager, Anita Jacobus, will be absent for three weeks on a jaunt to Canada.

Anita and Art and their two sons, Lee and Ray, this week embarked complete with trailer and other equipment on their great adventure. Making the trip also was their dog, "Kookie." We are sure she will enjoy it as much as the rest of the family.

We forgot to mention that family pets always enter into the picture when planning a vacation. Or did you know? We speak from experience.

There are other pets besides "Kookie" in the Jacobus household, including a couple of snakes that have practically driven Anita out of her mind.

We understand that Anita was firm about not allowing the snakes to accompany the family on the trek to the great northwest. She wanted a vacation from having them underfoot.

But from what we have gathered, if the snakes just happen to "snake in" it won't be surprising.

But we doubt if they will make it back to Campbell, if Anita has her way.

Still vacations are fun.

If you note a sort of wistful tone in that, you are right.

But, shucks, we haven't even started to plan one yet.

Letters to the Editor

THANKS MERCHANTS
Editor, Campbell Press

May we use your "Letters to the Editor" column to publicly thank the many merchants and businessmen in the Campbell area who were kind enough to sponsor our Valley Swim Association Championship Swim Meet being held at Campbell High School Pool on August 8 this year?

Local swimmers from Blackford, Camden, Blue Hills, Eastside, Tantau, Mt. View, Campbell and Del Mar Swim Clubs will compete for 12 High Point Trophies and ribbons from 50 different events during the meet. The cost of this type of program for the children runs over $300. The generosity of our merchants make it possible for the two hosting clubs, Campbell and Del Mar, to cover these expenses.

We parents who trudged from door to door asking for donations realize how often our merchants are "dunned" for contributions of this sort, and we want to express our appreciation to each of the business men and women who courteously gave us their time and support.

Sincerely,
MRS. FRED SWISHER

High School Baseball League in 3-way tie

By Alan Liss

The end of the first-half play in the annual Campbell High Summer Baseball League shows a dead heat at the top of the standings. The six team league boasts a three-way tie for the number one position.

Team Tolbert claims a 6 and 2 record while a replay of a tied game between teams Bailey and Liss will decide another 6 and 2 record for a two-way tie for the top. If Bailey wins the August 14 playoff, then this team will be in a position to fight for the sole championship. However, if Liss wins then this team will be the only other team in contention. All six teams are vieing for a chance to capture the over-all championship which will be decided sometime in early September.

The outlook for the second half shows another very tight pennant race for this league, headed by Commissioner John Oldham and Assistant William Campbell. Games are played every evening at the Campbell High baseball diamond and fans are welcomed.

THE STANDINGS
(as of the end of the 2nd half)

Local Scout attends National Jamboree

Jim Kelly of Boy Scout Troop 339, sponsored by the Moreland PTA, attended the National Jamboree for Boy Scouts at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, this month. Jim left San Jose July 9 and returned July 28.

During the trip the Scouts toured Chicago, New York, including the World's Fair, Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, and the Grand Canyon, besides spending a memorable week at the Jamboree at Valley Forge. The Scouts were honored by a visit and speech from President Lyndon B. Johnson.

The working team of Troop 339 raised the money for Jim's trip through the sale of American Flags. All of the boys in the troop were eligible for this trip who were thirteen years old and a First Class Scout. A contest was held to see which boy would go, based on Advancement, Church Attendance, Inspection, Attending Troop Functions and School Grades.

Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Kelly, 1410 Vallejo Drive. He is a student at Elvira Castro Junior High School.

Swim finals go Saturday

Valley Swim Association finals in the "A" division will be held at the Campbell Pool on Saturday, August 8, at 9 a.m. The Campbell and Del Mar Swim Clubs are the hosts. The teams participating in the meet are Camden, Eastside, Blackford, Mountain View, Tantau, Blue Hills, Del Mar and Campbell. Several hundred swimmers are expected to attend.

Local merchants have encouraged the swim clubs by donating trophies and sponsoring many events. Campbell Swim Club coach Bill Augenstein and Del Mar Coach Rollo Koivisto are looking forward to a successful meet. Friends of the swimmers are invited to attend.

Junior College board defers action on date for bond vote

West Valley Junior College trustees last week discussed but took no action on setting a specific date for another bond election to provide funds for permanent campus facilities. The College's first bond election held last March, received a 58 per cent affirmative vote, with 66 2/3 per cent needed for passage.

Lack of action last week pretty well eliminates consolidation with the general election on November 3, in view of a filing deadline of 90 days before the election and the needed approval of the County Board of Supervisors, to get the measure on the ballot then.

Discussion of possible further revision in the College's 1964-65 budget of $4,536,908 also occupied the trustees' attention. The budget, as it now stands, will necessitate a tax increase from 54 cents per $100 assessed property-valuation to 65 cents. Trustees had warned of this likely increase in the event the March bond-issue failed.

In trying to hold the tax-rate down, the trustees were urged by Dale Scott, research director of the Santa Clara County Taxpayers Association, to reduce substantially, if not entirely eliminate, the $1,005,000 budgeted for site acquisition. It was the belief of the taxpayers group that money spent for capital improvements, including site acquisition, should come from bond funds in lieu of current tax monies.

SAWS STOLEN

A recent inventory at Tanner Construction, 214 Cristich Lane, revealed the loss of 29 cable and skill saws from their establishment since the first of the year. Campbell Police are investigating the thefts of 17 porter cable saws and 12 skill saws totaling $4500 in value.

COLLEGE PREPARATORY--John Ritter, a 1964 Campbell High graduate who will enter Northwestern University next fall, stands by the Model A Ford dump truck which he is using to haul trash for customers this summer to earn some of his expenses for college. The Model A was recently purchased from the Campbell Water Co., by Joe Anello, co-publisher of the Campbell Press. The late Ralph Hyde, father of Homer Hyde, present manager of the water company, purchased the truck new for the water company use back in 1930.

Campbell-Moreland Ponies win district

Undefeated so far in both the area and district playoff tournaments, the Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars this week move into the sectional playoff series.

The sectional games will be played in Santa Cruz.

Teams from Sacramento, Richmond and Santa Cruz will attempt to stop the Campbell-Moreland juggernaut as the local team moves toward the world series.

The winner at Santa Cruz goes to Utah for the regional playoffs. The regional champs then converge on San Diego for the world series in the Pony League.

If the Campbell-Moreland team makes the world series, it will be the second time that some of the players on the squad have reached that coveted position.

A number of the all-stars were members of the world championship that went all the way in 1962.

The Pony League playoff tourneys are double-elimination affairs and in the district championship series last week held in Felton, Campbell-Moreland played Cambrian Park twice.

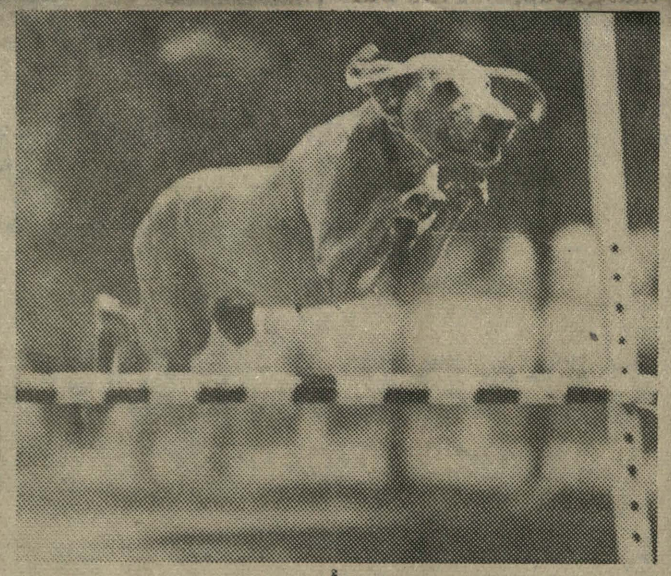
The final game on Saturday night between Cambrian Park and Campbell-Moreland was a closely-fought battle. The final count was 4-3 in a cliff-hanger that had the fans on edge.

The local team had a 4-0 edge going into the final stanza when Cambrian staged a rally that brought them just one run short. Cambrian Park scored three runs in this inning, Ted Campbell came in to relieve Tom Stamford in the final inning.

In the first game of the tournament, Campbell-Moreland defeated Salsipuedo of Watsonville 14-0 and followed with a 4-2 win over Cambrian Park. Mark Tauku handled the mound chores in the first game and Ted Campbell in the second. Kent McLain was behind the plate in the contests.

ANNUAL PICNIC

The Los Gatos Art Association will hold its annual picnic at the Odd Fellows Home on Fruitvale Ave., Saratoga, on Aug. 15. Dinner will be served from 5:30 through 6:00 P. M. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Sidney Bunce, 867-4225 not later than Aug. 8.



PREPARING FOR SHOW------This is "Chris", an 8 1/2 year old Weimaraner owned by Mr. and Mrs. James Crough, of 758 Rincon, in Campbell, practicing the bar jump in prepartaion for the Santa Clara Dog Training Club's sixth annual AKC licensed all-breed show. The show will take place Sunday, August 9, at the county fairgrounds. Admission is free to the show that runs from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Santa Clara wins Little League title

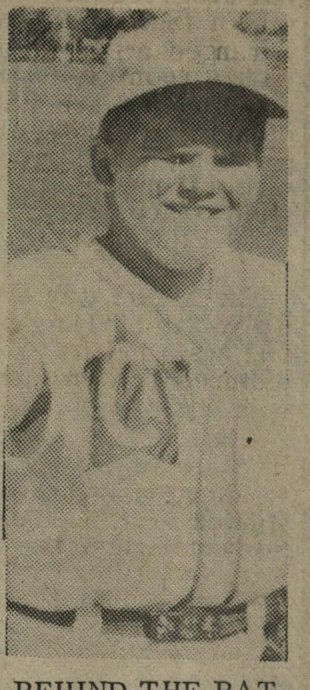
Santa Clara Westside won the District 44 championship of Little League on Saturday at Rosemary School field in Campbell by defeating Sunnyvale Serra 1-0.

The Sunnyvale Serra team had come out ahead of Campbell in the semi-finals Friday on the same field by a 3-0 score. A homerun in the second inning with two men aboard accounted for all the scoring in this battle.

Wayne Peyton was on the mound for Campbell in this heart-breaker with Jeff Lauro behind the plate.

On Thursday night Campbell had defeated Quito by a 9-0 score. Don Strobell pitched for Campbell with Lauro again catching.

Santa Clara Westside now goes to Watsonville for the next step in the long road leading to the world series.



BEHIND THE BAT-Jeff Lauro, who played on the Campbell Lumber team during the regular Campbell Little League season, handled most of the catching chores on the all-stars. Campbell all-stars lost in the semi-finals for the District 44 tournament played at Rosemary School field last week. Santa Clara won the district crown after defeating Sunnyvale in the finals last Saturday.

Camden 'swims' defeat Campbell

Camden Swim Club defeated the Campbell Swim Club by a score of 229 to 146 at a dual meet held at the Campbell Pool on Friday, July 31. Both teams are members of the Valley Swim Association.

Outstanding for Coach Don Samuelson's Camden team was "Teeny" MacDonald in the 7-8 year group. Steve Thompson in the 9-10 year group gained many points for the Campbell Team.

On July 28 the Camden Club lost a closely contested race with the Tantau Swim Club "A'S" of Cupertino. The score was 203-171. The meet was held at the Tantau pool. Tricia Gallaway, swimming in the 11 and 12 year age group took single honors in the free style event.

Pig stolen

A 300-pound black sow with white front feet and slits in his ears was stolen from a barnyard at the rear of 1630 Westmont July 31. The owner, Leslie S. Zinola, 2633 Pebble Beach Drive, Santa Clara, reported the theft of the pig, valued at $60 to the Campbell Police Department.

Zinola said he last saw the pig on Friday night when he fed her. Neighbors in the area reported teenagers were seen in the barnyard area in a rust red panel pick-up truck.

Former local teachers tell of Peace Corps experiences

EDITOR'S NOTE: Many Campbell residents will be interested in news from Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tindall (Art & Virginia) formerly teachers in Campbell, who have entered the Peace Corps for two year's service.

The following letter was received by Mr. & Mrs. Herman Y. Rice, Sr., who take pleasure in sharing it with Campbell residents:

Kansas City

Dear Rices:

We have reached the first milestone in the P. C. training; the end of the first full week. The experience, so far, has been all that we had expected with the exception of the P. E.

Kansas City is much more interesting than we had expected it to be. While we knew it would be green with trees, we had not expected the area to be rolling as it is. It is very interesting because it has variations throughout the City, and the trees are much more numerous than we had expected.

There are several very lovely residential areas in the City both in Kansas and in Missouri. It's interesting that there is one very picturesque street called State Line on which the houses on one side are in Missouri and on the other in Kansas, and they are apparently homes that would cost, many of them, from 50 to 100 thousand dollars.

The weather was hot and sticky when we arrived, and that was what we had been told to expect. That condition lasted for 3 days, and then on Monday we had the start of several days of almost perfect summer weather with warm clear nights. Our dorm, by the way, is fully air conditioned, and so the outside weather doesn't bother us as far as sleeping is concerned.

Our last minute change in assignment which we experienced resulted in our having to purchase our own plane tickets to K. C. since the P. C. didn't manage to get our tickets to us. We will be reimbursed, of course, I hope. When we boarded our plane on the morning we were to leave, we experienced a 6 hour delay because the flight was cancelled due to plane trouble. This found us arriving in K. C. 6 hours late, of course, and we were not able to land for an hour after arriving in the area because of a heavy electrical storm. This was an interesting experience, because we circled above the storm, and were able to look down on some magnificent displays of lightening.

Since it was late, we did not expect to meet anyone although we had been informed that a staff member would be meeting all incoming planes. When we got to the dorm at the University, we found out why none had met us. No one knew we were to arrive even though we sent a wire telling of the change of flight schedule, and the communications had not been well enough established so that they had not received our earlier message that we wanted accomodations for that night. Well, that was not enough.

We found that we couldn't stay together that night although they were kind enough to arrange for us to have rooms. In the morning things got worse when we learned from the staff that there were no accomodations for the 3 married couples who were to be in the group. We had been ribbed about this possibility before leaving, but never thought that it would work out as it did. We got lots of sympathy for 4 days, but no help. We were all set to write to Shriver, the President, our Congressman, etc. when things were rearranged and we now have a room together.

The rooms are quite comfortable and we are getting along very nicely from the standpoint of housing.

FIRST DAY

The first day was spent in filling out forms, and having pictures taken along with fingerprinting. All this, of course, had been sent in to Washington with our applications, but it was not sent to this center, and so, do it again. We began our meetings as a group on Friday evenings, and followed this up with meetings on Saturday and Sunday winding up with a reception on Sunday night.

We were greeted by the P. C. field director from Washington for our project. This was Dr. Freeman who has just resigned from the deanship of the Stanford law school to work with the P. C. In addition we had a civic dignatary or two plus the chancellor of this campus of the University of Missouri. The high point of the evening was the singing of the Colombian National Anthem by the Peace Corp group.

SCHEDULE

Monday we began our regular schedule as follows:

6:30-7:30--breakfast
7:30-9:30--Spanish instruction
9:30-10:30--area studies (Colombian culture, American institutions, etc.)
10:30-11:45--P. E.
12:00-1:00--lunch (at which time we engage in Spanish conversation with one of the instructors)
1:00-2:00--more area studies
2:00-3:00--Spanish conversation
3:00-4:00--technical studies (the why and how of community development and related skills)
4:00-5:30---P. E. including sessions of swimming
6:30-7:30--dinner
7:30-9:30--language lab. (1 hour required, but we may take more if we feel like it)
9:30-??--study next day's language assignment

The P. E. is proving to be easier than we had expected, and this is probably due to the fact that this is an urban rather than a rural development group. The tests we took to determine our groups and to provide some basis for measuring how we are doing were quite interesting. It was a group of events set up by the A. A. R. It included chinning, sit-ups, standing broad jump, block snatching, softball throw for distance, 660 yard run, 50 yard dash and swimming the four basic strokes. We both did quite well especially when compared to the young members of the group. The swimming is a real work out. The first time the groups met for instruction, we were required to swim about 25 lengths of the pool. Fortunately it is about a 2/3 rds regular length pool. We set daily work outs in P. E. exercises and instructions in the techniques of many games.

Oscar Edders, a sociologist on the regular staff here, and his staff have done a fine job of planning and carrying out the program. This is especially true in view of the fact that they had rather short notice of the fact that the program was going to be here, and the fact that they never did learn just how many were to come into the program. Mr. Eggers is highly respected by the group, and has a fine rapport with everyone. The group of language instructors are all native speakers and most of them are from Colombia. They are doing a good job. Guest lecturers are being brought in for many of the area and technical studies sessions. There are, by the way, 9 language instructors, and our basic groups are but 12 in number.

LANGUAGE STUDY

Surprisingly, we are both in the same language group. This is the top and fastest moving group. The grouping was determined on the basis of testing done before our first day of instruction. It is certainly no surprise that Virginia would be in that group, but the surprise is to find Arthur in it. Even more surprising is that he's managing to keep up so far. Getting help at night of course. (In Spanish, in Spanish!!) The greatest stress is, of course, being placed on the language program. We are all very pleased with the quality and quantity of the food. We eat cafeteria style at the student union (a beautiful new building), and the variety is excellent. The dining area is about 2 blocks away, and between walking over there, and walking back and forth between the dorm and classes, we are walking a long way each day.

The campus is just lovely. The trees we spoke of earlier are particularly fine on the campus which was a large estate at one time. There is a fine view of parts of the city also from several points on the campus. In addition to the trees, we have an abundance of squirrels, chipmunks, and rabbits running around freely. It sounds rural, but it's in the center of the city, and only about 20 minutes from downtown K. C.

We are doing something different and interesting in this project. Part of our training is to go out into the Community and find housing for the last 5 weeks of our stay here. We are to live with a Spanish speaking family. The family will be paid $10 per week, per person, and will not have any responsibility for food or laundry other than the bedding. This is to give exposure to the language in a different way, and to orient some of the people who have not had contact with Spanish speaking people before. Some of the group have found housing already as the result of visiting churches and attending a Mexican fiesta (which most of us did), but we haven't arranged anything yet, but we do have some leads.

By the way, the group training here, as you might suspect, is a young group. About 90% of them have just graduated from college in various fields. We are the oldest people in the group, and there is a 40-45 year old bachelor. The rest are in their late teens or early twenties. They are from the 4 corners of the country with the heaviest concentration from California (about 1/5th of the group). They are a wonderful group of young people with many talents and much drive. So you can imagine, it is most interesting to be in the thick of a group like this. Has a tendancy to keep us alert.

Please forgive poor duplication job. Better next time.

Heat is getting worse and more humid. Iced tea, showers, and an air conditioned room are saving features.

Hope you are all well. Drop a note when you can.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

By Gladstone A. Boquist
Field Representative

Q.-Will the Social Security Administration send me social security checks automatically when my company retires me at age 65?

A.-No. You must apply for your social security benefits in order to receive them. You should get in touch with your Social Security Office about three months before you retire, in order not to delay your first check.

Q.-Last month I reported to the Social Security Administration that I was earning over $100 a month and expected to earn $1500 this year. I get social security retirement payments. I recently got a raise and find I will earn $2000 this year. When should I notify the Social Security Office about my higher income?

A.-Immediately. The number of social security checks you should receive this year depends on the total amount you will earn. If you don't notify the Social Security Administration about your raise, you'll get more checks than you should. These checks would have to be returned, or refunded if they have been cashed and spent.

Q.-My husband and I both worked for many years. Now we are retired and both get old-age insurance benefits. He has recently been offered a job that will pay him $2400 a year. We heard that, since we file a joint income tax return, we can credit $1200 of his earnings to him and $1200 to me. That way, neither of us would lose any social security checks during the year. Is this true?

A.-No. A joint income tax return has nothing to do with social security payments. Your husband's total earnings will determine the number of social security checks he'll get during the year. However, your checks won't be affected because of his work, since you are being paid on your own work record. If you were getting wife's payments, your benefits, as well as your husband's, would be affected by his earnings.

Q.-I will be 63 next month. For the past several years I have earned $1500 a year and expect to continue working at this rate. I understand I could have put in an application for social security at the age of 62. However, I thought I could not get any benefits because I earn over $1200. Recently, I overheard a conversation that makes me wonder about this. Can a person really earn more than $1200 and get social security payments?

A.-Yes. You can get all your checks if you don't earn over $1200 in the year. However, the amount of your benefit will be less if you file your application before you reach age 65. You can get some checks if you earn $1500 during the year. How many checks you get depends on the amount of your social security benefit. The best thing to do is to request the Social Security Office to check your record. Then you'll know how much you can receive each year in social security payments, and still work at your present rate of pay.

San Jose State enrolls many students from foreign lands

Foreign students, representing 62 nations of the world, numbered 618 on the San Jose State College campus during the past school year, according to the foreign student office of SJSC. Only a dozen American colleges and universities have a larger foreign student enrollment than SJSC.

Leading all nations with students attending SJSC is Nationalist China with 92. Other large contingents of foreign students come from Canada with 78 and Iran with 74.

Asian and Far Eastern nations contribute 189 students with Japan and India following China with 28 and 24 students. Eight Middle Eastern nations have 109 students studying at SJSC.

From Europe, 21 nations are represented with the Netherlands, 18; Germany 17, and Greece, 10 students leading the nations, which total 93 students. Fourteen nations of the Americas have 118 students registered at SJSC.

Mali, a new African nation, has 17 students enrolled in a program of studies in English as a foreign language. The Malians, who are sponsored by the U. S. Agency for International Development, are the second African group to study under the A.I.D. program at SJSC.

The majority of the foreign students enter scientific and technological fields of study. Engineering claims 187 students and mathematics, chemistry, physics and medical technology enroll a total of 87 students.

Scholarship ranks high for the foreign students with 6 students maintaining a perfect "A" average and 73 holding better than "B" averages.

In addition to their studies, the foreign students are involved in numerous activity programs held in cooperation with the International Student Center. The Center also maintains a speakers bureau for the foreign students, and in the past year 98 students filled 47 speaking requests.

The college has developed special courses in English, speech and political science for foreign students. As another aid, the college loaned more than $5000 during the past year to needy foreign students and deferred tuition for 76 students.

Retiring SJSC President John T. Wahlquist terms the foreign student body "a Peace Corps in reverse."

OUR TOWN

By Grace Hebard

HAVE YOU HEARD?.. that the Sisters of Charity at O'Connor Hospital will be wearing new, more modern garb? Their customary large white bonnet will be changed to a smaller, more compact head gear and their habits shortened five or six inches. The Sisters of Charity, which is a Nursing Order, was identified on the Battlefields in World War I by their large white bonnets. Some of the older nuns are reluctant to change the traditional costume but the young ones are happy to make the change...

Home from the Phillipines... Mrs. Nellie Gilmer, 1518 Hack Ave., who is known hereabouts for her artistic bent with polyester glass, has returned from a ten month's visit to Basilian Island in the Phillipines where her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter K. Barnes now reside. Mrs. Gilmer, who is the widow of Sheldon Gilmer, former mayor of Pacific Grove, Calif., has lived in Campbell since 1956.
